

[illegible]

The Trip and Its Incidents—Indian at Home—Prairie Fires.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

It is reported that William G. C. Baker, vice-president of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, has been elected president of the American Automobile Association. Mr. Baker is a native of New York and has been in the automobile business since 1908. He is a member of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce and the American Automobile Association. He is also a member of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce and the American Automobile Association.

[illegible]

ing and the other two, which are being sold by the same company, are being sold by the same company. The company has been in the business of selling these books for many years and has a large following of customers. The books are being sold at a discount of 25 per cent off the retail price. The company has been in the business of selling these books for many years and has a large following of customers. The books are being sold at a discount of 25 per cent off the retail price.

